

One Hundred Fifteenth
SPRING COMMENCEMENT

Friday, May the Third
Two Thousand Twenty-Four
Bagwell Field at Dowdy-Ficklen Stadium™
Greenville, North Carolina

THE ACADEMIC PROCESSION

For the benefit of our visitors, the following information, digested from An Academic Costume Code and Ceremony Guide prepared by the American Council on Education, may prove helpful in identifying the costumes you will see in the Commencement Procession.

In the procession, first come the speakers, trustees, administrative officers, candidates for honorary degrees and other members of the platform party, then the faculty, and finally the candidates for degrees arranged in the order in which the degrees are to be conferred.

The history of academic dress reaches far back into the earliest days of the oldest universities. A statute of 1321 required that all Doctors, Licentiatees, and Bachelors of the University of Coimbra wear gowns. In England, in the second half of the 14th century, the statutes of certain colleges prescribed the wearing of a long gown. When American colleges and universities desired to adopt some suitable system of academic apparel, a conference held at Columbia University in 1895, made up of representatives from various institutions, drew up a By-law, Regulation, or Statute for the establishment of a suitable code of academic dress for colleges and universities in the United States. This code, with modifications made in 1959 by the Committee on Academic Costumes and Ceremonies of the American Council on Education, is still in force; the costumes and colors, trimmings and patterns you will see are all traditional, and interpret both the degree and field of learning. The bachelor's gown, designed to be worn closed, has pointed sleeves, and the master's gown, which may be worn open or closed, has an oblong sleeve open at the wrist which hangs down in the traditional manner. The rear part of its oblong shape is square cut and the front part has the arc cut away. The doctor's gown has bell-shaped sleeves. It may be worn open or closed.

Black is the recommended color for all academic gowns. Bachelor's and master's gowns are untrimmed. Doctor's gowns are faced with black velvet, with three bars across the sleeves; or the color of the velvet may be that which is distinctive to the degree, agreeing with that of the edging of the hood. The colors you will see in the hoods and gowns of our faculty represent the various fields in which the degrees were taken:

Apricot	Nursing	Orange	Engineering
Brown	Fine Arts	Pink	Music
Citron	Social Work	Purple	Law
Crimson	Journalism	Sage Green	Physical Education
Dark Blue	Philosophy	Salmon Pink	Public Health
Golden Yellow	Science	Scarlet	Theology
Green	Medicine	Slate Blue	Occupational Therapy
Lemon-Yellow	Library Science	Teal	Physical Therapy
Light Blue	Education	Yellow-Brown	Commerce, Business, Accountancy
Lilac	Dentistry	White	Arts, Letters, Humanities
Maroon	Home Economics
Olive-Green	Pharmacy

The hoods, differing in length for the three degrees, bachelor's, master's and doctor's, are lined with the official colors of the university or college conferring the degree, usually with one color forming a chevron pattern over the other. Hoods are edged and bound with velvet of the color appropriate for the degree. You will see in our procession many edged with the dark blue, for doctor of philosophy.

Mortar boards are the approved headgear. The tassel, worn on the left side of the cap, may be of gold if the holder has a doctor's degree.

Of Special Note

Student members of the ECU chapter of Phi Kappa Phi wear braided navy and gold honor cords. Phi Kappa Phi is the nation's oldest, largest and most selective collegiate honor society that inducts top baccalaureate and higher degree candidates in all disciplines. Initiates of Phi Kappa Phi must rank in the top 10% of their graduating class.

COMMENCEMENT SPEAKER

Ronnie Barnes

Ronnie Barnes' journey with the New York Giants organization began in 1976, marking the start of a 48 year career that has seen him rise to the position of head athletic trainer since 1980. His dedication and expertise led to promotions within the organization, first as vice president of medical services in 2003 and later as senior vice president in 2011.

Widely recognized as one of the most esteemed athletic trainers in professional sports, Barnes was honored with induction into the National Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame in June 1999. Furthermore, his exceptional skills were acknowledged when he was named the Athletic Trainer of the Year by NFL physicians in 2002.

In appreciation of his alma mater, East Carolina University, Barnes initiated the establishment of the Ronnie Barnes African American Resource Center at the Joyner Library in 2002. This 5,200-square-foot hub is dedicated to gathering materials pertinent to the legacy and future of African Americans in eastern North Carolina and the Southeast. Notably, Barnes holds the distinction of being the first African American graduate of the Sports Medicine Program at ECU. His alma mater has recognized his achievements by electing him to the East Carolina Athletic Hall of Fame and bestowing upon him the Outstanding Alumni Award.

The year 2019 marked a milestone in Barnes' career when he was presented with a lifetime achievement award by the Fritz Pollard Alliance, a foundation dedicated to advancing diversity and minority hiring within the NFL. His contributions were further acknowledged in 2020 when he received the Distinguished Athletic Trainer Award from the American Orthopedic Society for Sports Medicine.

In 2022, Barnes' legacy was cemented with his induction into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame. Additionally, in September of the same year, Barnes was enshrined into the New York Giants Ring of Honor, further solidifying his esteemed status within the organization.

Since taking on the role of the Giants' head athletic trainer, Barnes has been repeatedly recognized for excellence. He has twice been honored as the National Professional Trainer of the Year by the National Athletic Trainers Association. Additionally, he has contributed significantly to the field, serving on the NATA board of certification for a decade and assuming the presidency of the NATA Research and Education Foundation. His impact extends beyond the NFL, as he is also a member of the NFL Subcommittee on Mild Brain Trauma and completed a seven-year tenure as president of the Professional Football Athletic Trainers Society. Notably, Barnes and his team were recipients of the prestigious Ed Block Courage Award as the NFL Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 1999 and 2023.

Barnes' influence transcends borders as he has shared his expertise through national and international lectures on sports medicine. His contributions to the field are further underscored by his authorship of the widely acclaimed textbook Athletic Training and Sports Medicine, Third Edition. In 1994, Barnes was honored as the March of Dimes Man of the Year, recognizing his significant impact on society.

Beyond his duties with the Giants, Barnes remains actively engaged in various boards, including the Hospital for Special Surgery Board of Advisors, The NFL Player Care Foundation Board of Trustees, American Board of Family Medicine, Sports Medicine Advisory Board, and the Touro School of Medicine Health Advisory Board.

LUKE BOLDT

Major: Public Health

A member of the ECU Honors College, Luke is graduating with a degree in Public Health and a minor in Leadership Studies. He looks forward to attending medical school in the following years with hopes of practicing medicine in eastern North Carolina. A passionate leader on campus, Luke was a founding member and vice president of the ECU chapter of Delta Tau Delta fraternity. Emboldened by his fraternity’s commitment to service, he helped start the Greenville JDRF One Walk, which, since its inception in 2022, has raised more than $100,000 for Type 1 diabetes research. He has since served as the Vice President of Member Programming and Development on East Carolina University’s Interfraternity Council, where he spearheaded initiatives to unite all Greek organizations and encourage collaboration. One of his most rewarding opportunities while being an undergraduate student has been working alongside the ECU Department of Nutrition as a health coach for patients from rural and underserved communities. Luke is also heavily involved with the ECU Newman Center, where he leads his own bible study and has volunteered on international mission trips.

RACHANA CHARLA

Major: Biology

Rachana is a Program Manager of the ECU Birth Companions volunteer doula program at ECU Health. She was part of the first cohort of volunteer doulas established in October of 2022 and has provided physical and emotional support for birthing patients and has been able to directly support 13 births. She works as a program assistant at the ECU Women and Gender Office and has spearheaded the Feminist Friday and Empower Hour events which provide safe spaces for students to connect and converse about current events and gendered issues. Rachana was part of Emory University’s Break the Cycle of Environmental Health Disparities 2021 cohort to investigate environmental health and chemical phthalate exposure in children which has led to a publication in the International Journal of Public Health. Post-graduation, Rachana plans to further her education in the healthcare and medical fields.

ANJALEE HOU

Major: Economics

Born and raised in Greenville, NC, Anjalee “AJ” Hou is a Brinkley-Lane Scholar earning a Bachelor of Science in Economics with minors in Business Administration and Science. Anjalee participated in the Duke Summer Training in Academic Research (DukeSTAR) program, and her work studying the effects of E. coli on neonates was accepted to the Pediatric Academic Societies meeting in Toronto, Canada. Anjalee has been published in the Journal of American College Health for mental health research and in the Journal of Higher Education and Outreach for research on the Blue Economy Corridor. She revived the Asian Students Association and serves as President to give a stronger voice to the Asian population. Anjalee works at her family’s local Chinese restaurant, China 10. She has been accepted to ECU’s Masters of Business Administration and UNC’s Masters of Public Health graduate school programs and will eventually continue to medical school.

JAVIER LIMON

Major: Political Sciences

Raised in Greenville, Javier is a Brinkley-Lane Scholar in the Honors College earning a degree in Political Science with a Public Health minor. He has spent the past year serving as ECU’s first Hispanic Student Body President after breaking the record for the most votes ever recorded in an SGA election. In this role, he has served as the only student member of ECU’s Board of Trustees. Throughout his time in Student Government, Javier has advocated for tangible policies that impact the lives of students such as raising over 500 meals for the Swipe Out Hunger Initiative and working to endow a $50,000 scholarship to cover the living costs associated with student internships. Outside of ECU he has worked for YouTube and philanthropist MrBeast, interned for multiple political campaigns, and served as a legislative intern in the United States Senate. After graduation, Javier plans to obtain a Master of Public Administration at the University of North Carolina School of Government to enhance his abilities as a public servant.

TETE NARH-MENSAH

Major: Biology

During his time at ECU, Tete has been able to immerse himself in research with multiple colleges including the ECU College of Business, College of Fine Arts and Communication and Thomas Harriot College of Arts and Sciences. He has served as a student employee at the Center for Leadership and Civic Engagement which allowed him to help run campuswide events which promoted voting/civic engagement and participated in service oriented Alternative Break Experience Trips. Through the Honors College, he was able to travel to Pavia, Italy, to learn more about various European Healthcare Systems. After graduation, Tete will be working at the National Institute of Health’s Malaria Immunology and Vaccinology laboratory while preparing to apply to Medical School.

EAST CAROLINA UNIVERSITY'S MACE, LOGO AND SEAL

The mace, a medieval weapon, has become through the centuries an insignia of university authority. In this instance it represents the continuity of the institutional governing body.

Some 43 inches long and weighing approximately 14 pounds, the East Carolina University mace is constructed of sterling silver. It features a unique purple fluorite crystal cluster contained within a gold-plated cage. The shaft of the mace has a hammered texture and is divided in the center by a pierced band. The pierced design is repeated at the mace boss (symbolic head) and terminus. The terminus is a representation of the historical weapon head which has diminished in size as the mace has changed from a weapon to a symbol. The same representation of symbolic use has increased the size and importance of the boss or mace head. The mace bears the inscription East Carolina University 1907.

This handsome mace was designed and executed by the late John Satterfield of the Design Department of the East Carolina University School of Art, who commented on the design concept: In designing the East Carolina University mace I have attempted to maintain the visual integrity of a traditional mace and at the same time create a contemporary symbol which is unique to this institution.

We share a bold vision. Big goals. Great opportunities. Getting there means telling the ECU story in an equally bold way.

The university logo is a central component of ECU's brand identity. The logo is a stylized illustration of the most iconic architecture on the beautiful ECU campus: the Cupola. The Cupola is a copy of the ornamental structure that once graced the top of Old Austin, the original administration building.

Look closely at the logo and you'll see a representation of our students in cap and gown, underlining this university's commitment to student success.

ECU's logo — like the logos of other national universities over hundreds of years of higher education — also includes a shield, contributing to a sense of heraldry, gravitas and stature. This is paired with the letters ECU, in type that is both bold and fitting for the institution's personality.

The official East Carolina University seal is a six-cornered shield encased in a circular border containing the name, location, and founding date of the University. It appears on the diploma. The shield represents the shield of trust, as was used in the Crusades.

The university's motto, Servire — meaning To Serve — is emblazoned on the scroll. The blazing torch and the open Book of Knowledge symbolize education and the service rendered to the students by the University. The ink pot and quill, symbols of scribes, represent the creative arts and the contributions of the students to the world of business. The pirate is the school mascot.

The central motif of the design—a shield within the shield with Polaris, the guiding star, behind the two half globes that make up the world—expresses the idea that East Carolina University has the mission to educate graduates who will serve to the four corners of the world.

Actual honors are awarded based on calculations at the conclusion of the student's final term of enrollment.

The Commencement Program is printed prior to administering final examinations. Therefore, the inclusion of names of degree candidates in this program is not certification that degree requirements have been satisfactorily completed.

THE NATIONAL ANTHEM

*Oh! say, can you see, by the dawn's early light,
What so proudly we hailed at the twilight's last gleaming?
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, thro' the perilous fight,
O'er the ramparts we watched were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof thro' the night that our flag was still there.
Oh! say, does that star-spangled banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?*

– Francis Scott Key

ALMA MATER

*Praise to your name so fair,
dear old East Carolina
Your joys we'll all share,
and your friends we'll ever be.
We pledge our loyalty
and our heart's devotion
To thee, our alma mater, love and praise.*

– Harold MacDougle '44
